

SAVING ENERGY HAS NEVER BEEN COOLER

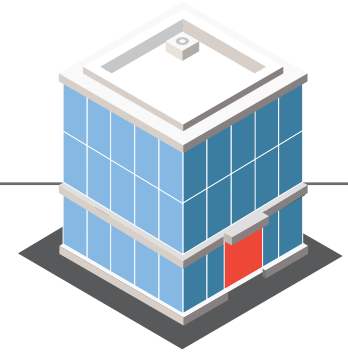

Want to know something cool? A state-of-the-art OG&E A/C Advanced Tune-up can improve the energy efficiency of your A/C unit by up to 30 percent, resulting in longer-lasting, better-working equipment with improved comfort and humidity control. We'll even cover the cost up to $400, based on the tonnage of the unit (additional charges may apply).

During your tune-up, a participating contractor will:

- Measure indoor airflow and recommend adjustments if needed
- Clean outdoor condenser coils
- Inspect indoor coil and blower and clean as needed
- Test your A/C to measure its cooling output

Don't wait to start saving.
