9. Here you will find the dates when your meter was read. The difference between your past and current usage shows how much energy (kWh) was used this billing period. A meter multiplier is used to make tracking energy (kWh) easier for high-usage customers. Most residential customers have a meter multiplier of 1.

10. Your rate is listed here. All charges or credits to your account are itemized in this section. These include charges for basic rates, applicable riders, deposits, deposit refunds, interest on deposits, or other refunds and the demand in kilowatts where applicable. HOW TO READ YOUR ELECTRIC METER

The meter scrolls through many different displays that will show your kilowatt-hour (kWh) usage and other system and diagnostic information. Most of the scrolling digital displays are identified by a number in the bottom left corner of your meter. This number represents what type of data is being shown. For more information, visit OGE.com/MeterFAQs.

TERMINATION OF SERVICE

The customer must notify OG&E when service is no longer required. Notification can be made by calling OG&E Customer Service or online at OGE.com.

DEPOSIT REQUIREMENTS

A deposit to guarantee payment for service may be required of applicants under certain conditions. If desired, the deposit may be paid in two equal payments with the first two bills. Instead of a deposit, a qualifying third party may submit a written guaranty to pay an amount equal to the deposit.

A deposit may be required of customers (or increased to the maximum) if certain conditions occur:

1. Customer fails to pay a bill before the close of business on the last day to pay as shown on the most recent shut-off notice within the last 12 months.
2. Customer gives utility two or more checks which were returned unpaid for reasons other than bank error in the last 12 months.
3. Customer does not pay bills by close of business on the due date two times in a row or any three times in the last 12 months.
4. Customer misrepresented his identity or other facts regarding obtaining or continuing service during the last 24 months.
5. Customer used service without authorization or tampered with utility equipment during the past two years.
6. Customer uses more service than the estimate on which the utility based the deposit. The utility may not charge any additional deposit after the first 12 months of service unless the customer moves the service to a new location or expands the business or scope of operation at the original location.
7. In accordance with the United States Bankruptcy Code, the utility may require a customer to furnish adequate assurance of payment in the form of a deposit or other security. This deposit may be in addition to all other deposits posted with the utility before the bankruptcy filing.

For applicants and for customers having less than 12 months history, the deposit amount will be based on the average monthly usage for the class of service. For customers having 12 months history, the amount will not be more than the two highest bills within the past 12 months. Interest paid on deposits will be credited to your account each month when you are billed for electric service.

Any deposit you may have for residential service will be refunded automatically if, for a period of 12 consecutive months, you have paid all bills by the due date and have rendered no check that was dishonored and service has not been disconnected for nonpayment. When OG&E makes a final termination of service, the amount of the deposit plus accrued interest will be credited to your account.

VERIFICATION OF BILLING ACCURACY

A meter test is available upon request from the customer. The customer will be charged $50 to cover the cost to perform the test if the meter is found to be accurate.

DELINQUENT BILLS

Please note that because smart grid technology allows us to remotely turn off service without dispatching a crew member to the meter to disconnect service, we will no longer place a notice on the door if service is disconnected. Customers scheduled for service disconnection will continue to receive notification by mail and phone as they do today. OG&E will make every attempt to contact you prior to disconnecting service due to nonpayment. If you are not able to pay the overdue amount, you must pay a $1.75 reconnection fee in addition to the overdue balance to restore service. If you are able to speak to customer service before the day your service is scheduled for disconnect you may be able to avoid the reconnect fees and only pay your overdue balance.

DELAYED PAYMENT

A customer having difficulty paying a utility bill may, if qualified, make payments in installments. OG&E will not suspend service if all three of the following conditions are met:

You pay at least 1/4 of your overdue bill in three business days.

You agree to pay the balance of your bill in installments over a three-month period.

You agree to pay all future bills coming due during the period of the agreement in full by each bill's respective due date.

In arranging the installment payment agreement, consideration will be given to your ability to pay, the amount unpaid, your payment history, the length of time and reasons why the account is past due.

Failure to comply with the terms of the delayed payment agreement is reason to suspend service without prior notification and OG&E shall be under no obligation to enter a second delayed payment agreement on the overdue amount or to enter any other delayed payment agreement for a 12-month period.

SUSPENSION OF ELECTRIC SERVICE

Service may be suspended to an existing customer, after proper notice, for one or more of the following reasons:

1. A bill for utility service to the current customer remains unpaid after the close of business on the last day to pay as printed on the most recent shut-off notice.
2. A former customer remains at the premises who owes that utility an outstanding bill for service at the premises; a full-time occupant of the premises when the bill was incurred remains at the premises; or, a full-time user of the service when the bill was incurred remains at the premises.
3. A current customer and a former customer who lived together at another location now live together at a new service location and the former customer owes a bill for service used during the time they lived together at a former location.
4. Failure to comply with a Public Service Commission order or the terms and conditions of a delayed payment agreement.
5. Failure to post a deposit.

6. Unauthorized or fraudulent use of the service, or tampering with utility equipment.
7. A misrepresentation of fact relevant to the conditions under which service was obtained.
8. Failure to pay a Commission-approved charge associated with the provision of service and billed by OG&E.
9. Refusal to grant OG&E access at reasonable times to its equipment at the customer's location.
10. Violation of OG&E's rules designed to prevent interference with the use of service by other customers.
11. Violation of OG&E's rules pertaining to the use of non-standard equipment or unauthorized attachments.
12. Violation of federal, state or local laws or regulations.
13. Abandonment of the premises served.
14. Causing injury, or threatening to cause injury, to an employee or the family of an employee of OG&E.
15. Causing damage, or threatening to cause damage, to OG&E property, or failure to pay for damage to OG&E-owned equipment installed on the customer's premises.
16. A condition exists which poses a health or safety hazard.

Accounts on which service is not reconnected within seven calendar days will be subject to being closed. Once the account is closed, the former customer will have applicant status when contacting OG&E for service.

SERIOUS MEDICAL CONDITION

Suspension of electric service to a residential customer may be postponed (or reconnected if disconnected) for 30 days or less once OG&E is notified that a serious medical condition exists. A physician's certificate must be received within seven days of notification or service may be suspended. The certificate is available through OG&E and must be signed by a physician licensed to practice medicine by the Arkansas State Medical Board or allowed to practice in Arkansas under a comparable licensing authority. The certificate must clearly state that suspension of service will cause a substantial risk of death or gravely impair the health of a permanent resident in the household where service is rendered. The certificate is valid for up to 30 days and may be extended for one additional 30-day period by re-verification before the initial certificate expires. OG&E is not required to accept more than one physician's certificate per household each year.

SALES TAX EXEMPTION / LOW INCOME RESIDENTIAL CUSTOMERS

OG&E residential customers with an annual income of $12,000 or less can qualify for a sales tax exemption. This exemption is available through Act 120 of 1983 which provides for an exemption of state sales tax on the first 500 kWh of electricity used each month. Application forms are available from OG&E.

CUSTOMER'S EXTENDED ABSENCE

Several options are available to residential customers to avoid suspension of service during periods of extended absence:

1. Remittance of a prepayment.
2. Designation of a third party to receive a copy of any shut-off notices OG&E must send because of nonpayment.
3. Enrollment in OG&E's Automatic Payment Withdrawal Plan whereby the monthly service bill is paid automatically through the customer's checking or savings account.
4. Requesting that bills rendered during the absence be mailed to an alternate address or to a third party.

EXTENDED DUE DATE

The Extended Due Date Plan is available to qualifying residential customers and is intended to enable OG&E to change a customer's bill payment due date, at the customer's request, to coincide with or follow the customer's receipt of a fixed income. Customers who qualify under this plan and pay by the new date will not be considered late on their bill payment.

Qualifying income sources are as follows:

1. Persons receiving Aid to Families with Dependent Children (AFDC), or Aid to the Aged, Blind and Disabled (AABD).
2. Persons receiving Supplemental Security Income.
3. Persons whose primary source of income is Social Security or Veterans Administration disability or retirement benefits.

LANDLORDS & TENANTS

OG&E has established procedures for identifying accounts where utility service is provided at an address different from the mailing address of the bill. OG&E will not suspend service to an identified account for nonpayment until it sends a suspension notice to the landlord. If the landlord does not respond within seven days from the mail date, OG&E will post a notice in areas of common usage or mail a notice to all tenants at least 14 days before suspending service. OG&E will wait at least 30 days after the due date of the landlord's bill before suspending service and allow any tenant to apply for service in the tenant's name if separate metering is feasible. OG&E will not require payment from a tenant of any amount that is owed by the landlord.

LEVELIZED BILLING

This plan is designed to levelize (average) your monthly payments and level out those unusually high bills that occur during months of high electricity use. Your total annual cost for electricity remains about the same but you have the convenience of a more consistent bill each month. Levelized Billing is available to qualifying residential and general service customers. Learn more at OGE.com/AMB.

THIRD PARTY NOTIFICATION

OG&E's "Third Party Notification" plan allows a residential customer to designate a "third party" — a relative, friend, neighbor, social worker, etc. — to receive a copy of any shut-off notices OG&E must send because of nonpayment of electric bills. The third party is not obligated to pay any past-due bills.

CUSTOMERS 65 YEARS OF AGE OR OLDER OR PHYSICALLY DISABLED

For residential customers at least 65 years of age or who have a physical disability that affects their ability to pay, OG&E will attempt to contact the customer at least 72 hours before suspending service. If the attempt to make personal contact with the customer is not successful, OG&E will give 24 hours written notice, which explains what can be done to avoid suspension. When a registered customer cannot pay a bill on time, OG&E will offer to: arrange a delayed payment agreement, arrange for Levelized (average) Billing, explain the right to third party notice, and provide the names of federal, state, and local bill payment assistance agencies to the customer.

OG&E will not suspend residential service to a registered customer on a day when the National Weather Service forecasts a temperature of 95 degrees Fahrenheit or higher or 32 degrees Fahrenheit or lower at any time during the following 24-hour period.

Rider for Energy Cost Recovery (ECR)

The ECR shall recover the Company's net fuel and purchased energy cost which shall be applied to each customer's monthly billing energy (KWH). Rate shall reflect the projected Energy Cost for the 12-month period commencing on April 1 of each year together with a true-up adjustment reflecting the over-recovery or under-recovery of the Energy Cost for the 12-month period ended December 31 of the prior calendar year.

Rider for Uniform Municipal Tax Adjustment (MTA)

Applicable to: All Rate Schedules on which Municipal Taxes are imposed by ordinances approved by the governing bodies of the municipalities in which the Company's customers are located.

Energy Efficiency Cost Recover Tariff (EECR)

The EECR Tariff is to recover the incremental costs of energy efficiency programs approved by the Arkansas Public Service Commission. Recovery is limited to the incremental costs which represent the direct program costs that are not already included in the current rates.

Transmission Cost Recovery Rider (TCR)

The TCR Rider allows OG&E to recover the actual amount of Southwest Power Pool (SPP) Tariff Administration Services paid by OG&E and to credit customers with revenues received from SPP services.

Renewable Energy Program (REP)

The REP is available on a voluntary basis to all retail customers except OSL, LM, AFL and incremental RTP kWh. OG&E reserves the right to limit the amount of Renewable Energy Credits ("Credits" or "RECs") provided to individual customers under this rider. Should subscriptions exceed available supply, OG&E is not obligated to acquire additional Credits. These Credits will include all renewable resources allocated to the Arkansas jurisdiction. Customers may subscribe at any time but the initial subscription term is one year.

Load Reduction Rider (LR)

The Company, at its sole discretion may call for a curtailment for any operating or economic purpose. The use is not limited to emergency conditions.

Formula Rate Plan Rider (FRP)

The FRP defines the procedure by which all rates and applicable riders on file with the APSC, except those excluded in Attachment A.1 to the FRP tariff, may be periodically adjusted. The FRP shall apply to all electric service billed under the Rate Schedules, whether metered or unmetered.

Day-Ahead and FLEX Pricing (DAP and FLEX)

The customer's bill under these tariffs will consist of a Standard Bill and a DAP/FLEX energy component.

Utility Solar Program (USP)

The USP is a voluntary rate offering that makes solar energy produced by OG&E available to retail customers (excluding lighting customers). This rate is not available to customers who take service under another alternative source of generation or co-generation tariff.

Co-generation and Small Power Producers

OG&E has rate schedules available to customers who own small power production facilities. These rates offer either a gross or net energy purchasing option depending on the size of the facility.

This information is provided as required by the Arkansas Public Service Commission (APSC) and is effective in all areas served by OG&E in the state of Arkansas.

All rates are on file with the APSC. Rate schedules and the Commission's General Service Rules are available to you on request or can be accessed at arkansas.gov/psc.
